HATE CRIME SUMMIT: MUSLIM WOMEN SPEAK OUT

The Somali Canadian Association of Etobicoke will be hosting a Hate Crime Summit: Muslim Women Speak Out . The Summit aims to engage multiple stakeholders to work together in tangible and sustainable ways to effectively respond to victims of hate crimes.

The purpose of the project is to empower Muslim women who are victims of hate crime and hate incidents by

- Providing a safe and respectful opportunity for Muslim women who wear the hijab to speak out about their experiences of hate crime.
- Providing counselling and support group sessions for Muslim girls and women who have been victims of hijab-focused hate crimes.
- Educating and raising awareness among the Muslim community about hate crime and what to do
- Generating community discussions about how to support community members that are victims of hate crimes .
